5. LEAVE AND LICENCE:

Licence is a grant of a right to do something upon an immovable without creating interest in the property. A Licence is defined under Sec.52 of the Indian Easements Act, 1882, which reads as under: "Where one person grants to another, or to a definite number of other persons, right to do, or continue to do, in or upon the immovable property of the grantor, something which would, in the absence of such right be unlawful and such right does not amount to an easement or an interest in property, the right is called Licence". The essential distinction between a Lease and a Licence is that in a Lease, there is transfer of interest in the property while in the case of licence, there is no such transfer although the licensee acquires only a personal right to occupy the property.
